

| | |
|---|---|
| Personal Profile including career highlights, and personal information | I started my teaching career as a graduate assistant in 1985 in the US. I moved to Switzerland in 1992 to train as a psychoanalyst at the Jung Institute in Zurich. I have taught at Webster since March 2000 in the Psychology department. |
| Education | BA Psychology (1981), Teaching Certificate (1986), MA in Counseling Psychology (1992) at Kutztown University, Kutztown, PA. USA. Psychoanalytic Diploma, Jung Institute, Zurich, Switzerland (1992) |
| Professional Experience | Teaching since 1985 at university, public schools, and privately. Private practice psychoanalyst since 1998. Teaching at Webster since 2000. Lecturer at Cesar Ritz Hotel School since 2004. |
| Professional Development | Borderlands Conference, St. Petersburg, Russia. August 30-Sept 2, 2012 Historical, Cultural, Clinical, and Scientific Issues in Psychoanalysis. Certified Hospitality Education Training, Bouveret, Switzerland, January 2010. Myers-Briggs Certification with Peter Geyer, August 2008. |
| Teaching experience at Webster | I have taught a variety of Psychology classes since March, 2000 at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. |
| Professional Memberships | IAAP, Member of International Association of Analytical Psychologists. AGAP, Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists, Zurich. |
| Awards and Honors | Voted one of the 100 most important graduates of Kutztown University in the last 140 years. |
| Publications | “From Blue Collar to Ivory Tower, Counseling First Generation College Students in Special Populations, Co-authored with Dr. Joseph Lippincott. edited by Joseph and Ruth Lippincott, Published by ACA in the USA. |
| Conference Papers Presented | Stag and Doe as Messengers of the Unconscious, Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, Pa. USA. October 1999 |
| Languages | English, Basic French, German, and Italian. |
| Interests | Skiing, travel, and hiking. |